

International Journal of Management
Decision
Making

Scope of the Journal

The general themes of IJMDM seek to develop our understanding of organisational decision making and the technology used to support the decision process. A particular purpose is to consider management processes in international and cross-cultural contexts and to secure international inputs and comparisons. IJMDM aims to provide a new venue for high quality papers focusing on the analytical and empirical study of management processes in private and public sector organisations - including cases and action research.

Contents

IJMDM publishes original and review papers, case studies, conference reports, management reports, book reviews and commentaries on developments in the literature of management and decision making, notes on research work in progress, and news. Contribution may be by submission or invitation, and suggestions for special issues and publications are welcome.

Subject coverage:

- Making and implementing strategic decisions
- The strategy process and entrepreneurship
- Centralisation and decentralisation in large enterprises and management implications
- Strategic alliances between business corporations
- Networks and joint ventures
- Entrepreneurship and management process in the smaller business
- Innovative processes in organisations
- Organisational development, change processes and their measurement
- The interplay of individual and organisation
- Communications in organisations
- Decision support systems
- Electronic messaging
- Technological developments in competitive environments
- Management in private and public sector organisations: comparisons and contrasts
